

First 2015 Tank Excellence in Compliance (TEC) Award

The Kentucky Underground Storage Tank Branch and the Kentucky Petroleum Marketers Association are pleased to announce the nominees for the first-ever Tank Excellence in Compliance (TEC) Awards in Kentucky. We will recognize these nine (9) nominees and announce the winners at the upcoming 2015 KPMA Tank and Technical Conference in Lexington, KY on November 4, 2015.

What is the TEC Award? The USTB and KPMA partnered to recognize tank owners in our state that exhibit excellence in compliance with their underground storage tank systems.

How were they selected? The USTB identified the nine nominees from all 3,312 tank facilities in the state using data collected from July 1, 2014 – June 30, 2015.

The nominees in the following categories are:

Small Facility Owner (single facility)

Bob & Ann's Market – Sedalia, KY
Duff's Ashland Service Station – Lexington, KY
Napier Gulf – Scottsville, KY

Medium Facility Owner (2 – 10 facilities)

Banks Grocery Co.
Hawkstone Associates, Inc.
Zion Country Store

Large Facility Owner (11 or more facilities)

Bellsouth Communications LLC
John W. Clark Oil Company
United Dairy Farmers

A TEC Award winner from each category will be announced at the KPMA Tank and Technical Conference. An overall winner will then be announced as the 2015 Outstanding Facility TEC Award recipient.

For a detailed look at the schedule, session topics and list of speakers, visit kpma.org/tankandtech. Register here or register by phone at 859-219-3571. Registration closes 10/31/15.